

COURT-HOUSE LOCALS.

The Overland Telephone and Telegraph Company in Court—Henry Arnold Gets Two Years North.

The County Board yesterday allowed bills amounting to $3,572.28.

Judge Howe yesterday dismissed the divorce suit of Etta Ringer vs. Herbert Ringer.

A new trial has been refused by Judge Howe in the suit of Elsie Hadley and others vs. George Wood.

Thomas E. Watts yesterday gave $2,500 bonds as administrator of the estate of William H. Foreman, deceased.

The Laborers' Saving and Loan Association with $100,000 stock and the National Bavarian Benefit Association filed articles for record yesterday.

The will of Thomas H. Wood, of Utica, N. Y., was probated yesterday, there being property in this city belonging to the estate. The estate is valued at over $100,000.

The damage suit of Siller vs. Landers, for $5,000, on account of personal injuries received a year ago by falling through a breaking sidewalk on North Illinois street, was compromised yesterday for $450.

The suit of John G. Rathson vs. E. G. Hanna and the city, for damages, was compromised and dismissed yesterday in Room 2. Rathson fell in the cellar in front of the James House a year ago and sustained injuries.

Ohio L. Wade has filed suit against Arthur Timberlake, H. C. Adams and R. L. Scarlett to recover $700, alleging for cause that defendants induced him by false representations to take stock in the "Indiana Overland Telephone and Telegraph Company," which has proved worthless.

Building permits: J. R. Newton, $1,100 frame, Mississippi street between Ninth and Tenth; H. K. Kerchapp, $1,000 frame, 34 Oriental street; R. Toetner, $1,000 frame, corner of Franklin and Downie streets; Franklin Vonnegut, two $1,000 frames, Ohio street near Highland street. Other permits, $2,500. Total, $5,600.

William W. Sikes has filed suit to foreclose a mortgage against John D. Condit and a large number of others, which was given by Condit and wife to the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company on a part of lot 1 in square 13 to secure a note for $11,000 and ten coupon notes for $1,332.50 each. The coupon notes were assigned to plaintiff.

Nancy E. Clem yesterday filed complaint against William F. Clem to set aside judgment of divorce, granted in April, 1883. The complaint alleges that soon after the rendition of the decree the plaintiff in the suit left the State and still remains a non-resident. The complaint in the present suit alleges fraud on the part of William F. Clem in the procurement of the former decree.

The suit of John E. Sullivan vs. D. M. Adams for damages went off Judge Walker's docket yesterday on a compromise. Plaintiff sued for damages on account of eggs stored in defendant's storehouse, alleging that by improper storage they were ruined. Judgment was obtained for $800 and the case went to the Supreme Court. When the case came back it was dismissed, the defendant agreeing to the $800 judgment.

Henry Arnold was tried yesterday in the Criminal Court for petit larceny. He is the party who was arrested for stealing several articles from the residence of John Browning. He admitted stealing an album, but denied the theft of the other articles. Judge Norton gave him two years north. Arnold is a colored man. As he was leaving the courtroom he expressed his gratification, saying he was going to the Reform School at Plainfield. He was informed by the officers that his destination was north instead of west. In less than thirty hours after his arrest he was on his way to Michigan City.

The suit of Letta J. Scott vs. Reuben Morris for $5,000 damages was dismissed in Room 3 yesterday. Plaintiff, who is a colored woman, and defendant a white man, alleging that in June of last year he forcibly had carnal knowledge of her against her will. The complaint also alleged that he transferred his property at Broad Ripple and in the village of Wellington to defeat her suit in this case and demand was made to have the transfers set aside. The case has been pending for nearly a year, but the sheriff has never been able to get service on Morris; hence the dismissal.

RAILWAY NEWS.

Several new passenger coaches will be placed on the L. E. and W. within the next few days.

It is quite probable that the Vandallia shops will be lighted with electric light in the near future.

There is every indication that work on the Big Four shops east of the city will be commenced this summer.

Travel to points in Kansas and Nebraska is very heavy at present, and it is not probable that there will be a lull in the emigrant business until about the last of the month.

Because of the extreme low rates very little profit has been realized from New Orleans business, although travel to the Crescent City has been very heavy since February 1.

Statements of the earnings of several of the central group of roads for the two months ending February 28 have been received. During that period the L. E. and W. earned $388,740; Peoria, Decatur and Evansville $120,180; Evansville and Terre Haute $400,141; Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago, $371,940.

A railroad man says that brakemen and firemen are two classes of men who should be chosen with great care, as it is from them that the conductors and engineers are to be developed, and since they are apprentices with the largest pay that any apprentice receives in any trade, it is not worth while to throw away the valuable instruction which they are to receive upon inferior characters. Upon the brakeman a great responsibility rests. Firemen should be of a mechanical turn of mind and ambitious to become engineers. There are plenty of young men with these qualifications, and it is a waste to employ others. They make the better firemen, of course, from their hope of advancement.

The Lake Michigan and Ohio River Road filed articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State yesterday. Its capital stock is $100,000, and it is designed to connect railroads terminating at Yeddo, Fountain County, and Jasper, Dubois County. H. H. Foss, of Chicago, owns 905 shares of the 1,000 shares of stock. This time when built will give the Chicago and Great Southern a road to Rockport.

A statement of the earnings of the Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago Road for the fourth week in March has just been compiled by Treasurer Osborne. It makes the following showing: Passengers, $19,005.20; local freight, $17,260.31; foreign freight, $20,818; line freight, $8,307; express, $1,700; mails, $2,504; total, $69,644.51; total, first quarter, $51,927.22; total, second quarter, $33,604.09; total, third quarter, $49,361.14; total for four quarters, $224,432.50; total increase over last year, $22,290.65. This is certainly a gratifying report.

The Monon stockholders now have a set of officials watching over their interests of whom they may well feel proud. As one of the employees of that road aptly remarked to a Sentinel reporter the other day, "They pull right along together." The directors of this road in time past were very unfortunate in their selection of the heads of the various departments. They brought together men who could not agree on any one subject, and naturally enough the road suffered considerably thereby. A lack of harmony among its higher officials will injure any road, to a certain extent, and its effect on the L. E. and W. was only too apparent. Mr. William Dowd, the recently elected President, is a careful and cautious man and being possessed of a thorough railroad education, having went up the ladder step by step, is of course well fitted for the position he holds. There are few, if any, better General Managers than Mr. Dowd's right hand bower, J. R. Carson, who is well liked and respected by the employees from one end of the line to the other. With such men as these managing its affairs it can not help but prosper.

THE MODEL OPENING.

The Promise Was Great, But the Performance Was Greater.

The expectations of a brilliant affair, aroused by the Model's announcement of their formal spring opening, were more than realized yesterday when the doors were thrown open and the crowds of visitors marched in to the enchanting strains of the grand march. The five large stores looked more like a fairy bow than a business establishment, every available point being occupied by choice tropical plants, the walls and arches beautifully festooned with the national colors, among which were beautifully situated fine portraits of Grant and Cleveland, and everything presenting a holiday appearance. Commodore John Sullivan, who, although nineteen years old, is but 44 inches high and weighs only fifty-two pounds, presided over the occasion with his usual grace and greatly pleased the throngs of ladies who graced the occasion by their presence.

The decorations and general arrangement of stock will continue the same throughout the week, and all are invited to call and inspect one of the handsomest stores and stock of goods in the line in Indiana.

DIAMOND SPORT.

Once More the Louisville Bites the Dust, and this Time With the Famous Hecker in the Box.

Owing to the gloomy and threatening weather the attendance at the Seventh Street Park yesterday was not nearly so large as on the day previous, but the game was much more interesting than that of Monday, being closely contested throughout. The "mighty" Hecker, backed by Sullivan, faced the local sluggers, and the game opened with Miller and McGuire occupying the points for the home team. The former, however, being troubled with a very sore arm was a trifle wild from the start, and in the seventh inning was substituted by Moriarty, who pitched the remainder of the game in good style. McGuire did good work behind the bat, and was loudly applauded for a brilliant assist to Donnelly, whereby one of the visitors who had started in was prevented from scoring, and the side was retired with three men on bases. It was simply a beautiful exhibition of fielding on the part of the home team, there being but a single error, and that is credited to Miller for an overthrow to third.

The first base play of McGuire and Crane's second base work were the features of the game. The former distinguished himself with the slick, making a hit every time he came to the bat. Browning, Kerins and Wolf led the batting for the visitors. Louisville had a lead up to the eighth inning, when the home team secured three runs on terrific drives by Poorman and Miller, and loose fielding. Geer and his able Lieutenant Cline refrained from giving another "month" exhibition, and the crowd was not so noisy as on Monday. Brennan umpired and was called upon to make several very close decisions. The subjoined score tells the story in detail:

Hecker returned to Louisville last night. The Dayton Club will play here tomorrow and Friday. They are the champions of the Ohio League.

The Kentuckians are beginning to realize, no doubt, that the Indianapolis nine for 1885 is made up of better stuff than that with which they had such a picnic about a year ago.

That great "circus" ball player, Cline, showed no disposition to howl yesterday, but before going into the field said to Collins: "We will knock your eye out to-day." The score will show whether or not Mr. Cline is a false prophet.

Hart, the manager of the Louisville, did not want Brennan to umpire yesterday's game, and he so informed Captain Collins of the home team. He thought that either Keenan or one of his own players should fill this position, but Collins did not see it in that light and Brennan umpired.

Providing the grounds are in a fit condition there will be another game between the home team and the Louisville to-day. Casey and Keenan will be the battery for home team, while the visitors will present Mays and Whiting. The former is an amateur pitcher of some note, having played great ball last year with the Oil City (Pa.) Club. The Louisville intend to give him a fair trial, and if he proves a success they will sign him.

The Supreme Court.

The following cases were decided by the Supreme Court yesterday:

11,030. James L. Hinton vs. Thomas L. Whitaker et al. Howard C. O. Affirmed.

Still Alive.

Mr. C. E. Shover, one of our most popular ice men, made the remark that he is still alive and doing a large business, and has not been troubled in the least with the Ice Combination Companies, with whom he is in competition. We trust the same good luck will follow Mr. Shover through the season and as long as he may continue to cater to his numerous customers. Orders will reach him through Telephone No. 806, or at his office, 174 East Market street.

The Lucky Man.

George A. Spear, the lucky man who drew the $75,000 in the Louisiana State Lottery, was met by the Tribune scribe last evening in the Postoffice. He has not changed any since the good news came, with the possible exception that his face is now often bedecked with smiles. The wealth so suddenly heaped upon him has not elevated his head above the common herd, and he talks to the reporter the same as he used to. In answer to questions he said: "I will collect my money through the banks, the same as I would a draft, sending the lottery ticket as a draft. As to my future business, I am not fully decided upon, but I will make no change during this cold weather any way. I am clerking in the store yet, just as though nothing had happened."—Bay City (Mich.) Tribune, March 21.

George A. Spear yesterday received a New York draft for $74,850, in payment of his claim against the Louisiana State Lottery. The exchange for collecting the $75,000 was $150.—Bay City (Mich.) Tribune, March 27.

Advice to Mothers.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once. It produces natural, quiet sleep, by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
